

NL56 Beat Update

Dear Residents,

I hope this email finds you well. I have reviewed the last 14 days of reported crime across the NL56 beat:

Quorn:

- x1 Vehicle crime reported - This was a report of a purse stolen from an insecure vehicle. Unfortunately we have no suspects at this time.
- x1 Theft reported - This was a theft from a shop - This report is currently under investigation.
- x2 Criminal damage reports - One report was damage caused to commercial lawn mowers the second report is damage caused to the plants in the Memorial Garden, Quorn. These reports are currently under investigation.
- x1 Burglary reported - A lock to an outhouse broken, but nothing taken. Currently under investigation.

Rothley:

- x2 Reports of criminal damage - Both were reports of locks broken to access gates - both reports currently under investigation.
- x2 Vehicle crimes reported - One report of a theft of a registration plate, unfortunately we have no suspects at this time. Second report was theft of a car, this report is currently under investigation.

Woodhouse Eaves:

- x1 Reported vehicle crime - Theft of a car, this report is currently under investigation.

Woodhouse:

- x1 Report of criminal damage - Fire set to some hay barrels - No suspects at this time.

We are advising residents to ensure their vehicle and homes are kept secure at all times, especially in the evenings. With the summer holidays approaching, we are advising residents to make their homes look occupied whilst they're away - use timers on your lamps and ask a neighbour to park their car on your drive.

The beat team are holding beat surgeries in the upcoming weeks, this is a good opportunity to discuss your neighbourhood concerns and to meet your local policing team.

- Saturday 16th July - 11:00am - 12:00pm - The Apple & Pear, Woodhouse Eaves
- Saturday 16th July - 14:00 - 15:00 - Co-Op, Rothley
- Sunday 17th July - 11:15am - 12:15pm - Station Road (near Bradgate Road), Cropston
- Sunday 17th July - 13:30 - 14:30 - Police Box, Bradgate Road, Newtown Linford
- Sunday 17th July - 15:00 - 16:00 - Old School Tearooms, Quorn

We hope to see you there!

Kind Regards,

NL56 Beat Team
